PASTOR'S PEN

Greetings in Christ Jesus!

Our Gospel this Sunday tells two very different, but interconnected stories: a parent desperately trying to save his daughter, and a woman desperately trying to save herself.

First, we have Jairus, a leader of the local synagogue, who comes to Jesus. Jairus is a man of great privilege. But his privilege does not exempt him from pain. Despite all his privilege, he is unable to help his 12 year old daughter. In the end, he is just like every other parent who has begged God to help his child.

Without a word of response, Jesus goes with Jairus. There is not a moment to lose, but the crowd surrounds them, making it difficult to move quickly. They do not have time for this. And then...

Jesus stops in his tracks. "Who touched me?" A strange question to ask as he fights his way through a crowd. And there she is, the woman comes forward, falls at Jesus' feet, and tells him the whole truth: She had been sick for 12 years.

This woman is bold. So, she risks everything, including perhaps the comfort and status of those around her, for one last chance. But Jesus stops. He finds the bold woman. He calls her daughter. He speaks words of peace and healing and salvation over her.

And just as she experiences healing and restoration, Jairus gets the devastating news that his daughter has died. Jesus rushes into the house, past the mourners, and takes the dead girl's hand: "Little girl, get up!" And she rises.

Their stories depend on each other. The woman has been suffering for 12 years, the entire length of time of Jairus' 12 year old daughter's life. Both, in very different ways, express incredible faith. Both experience God's salvation, God's healing, through Jesus.

Our stories are connected. As different as we are, as different as the ways we come to Jesus are, we all come to Jesus and we find God's salvation in him. Jesus looks into the face of each one of us, and everyone who is so different than us, and calls us all daughter, son and beloved child.

Fr.Maschio.

DAILY MASS

Why not make a commitment to attend at least one daily Mass in addition to the Sunday Mass? Join us at 8:00 am, Monday through Friday. Time required is less than a half hour and if you have extra time, coffee is served in the conference room immediately after Mass.

FEAST OF STS. PETER AND PAUL

On June 29 the Church celebrates the feast day of Sts. Peter & Paul. As early as the year 258, there is evidence of an already lengthy tradition of celebrating the solemnities of both Saint Peter and Saint Paul on the same day. Together, the two saints are the founders of the See of Rome, through their preaching, ministry and martyrdom there.

BULLETIN BITS 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"...as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality." - 2 CORINTHIANS 8:14

One of the tenants of living a grateful and generous lifestyle is giving without expecting anything in return. It is important that we not only grow, nurture and share our gifts; but that we also teach our children and encourage others to do the same. This is the communal aspect of our Catholic faith. We are the "Body of Christ". We are called to be dependent on each other and not live in isolation.
