PASTOR'S PEN

Greetings in Christ Jesus!

In the Gospel reading for this Sunday, Jesus returns to his people and teaches in their synagogue, but he is rejected by them.

It does not seem to be because of his words that Jesus is rejected. The people who reject him do not even discuss what he has taught them. It was out of the petty jealousy that Jesus was one of them but he is able to teach with an authority that they could not digest.

Perhaps there is an important insight here. In the face of rejection and lack of love, our need for explanation can be strong. But sometimes there might not be clear explanations to resolve it all.

But, of course, it was not their fault, just as it was not Jesus's fault. No matter what wonderful teaching Jesus gave, no matter what great works he performed, there were some people who were pretty much going to reject him anyway.

Part of the pain of not having been loved or having been rejected is that so often we are unable to provide an explanation for it. And so, in the absence of explanation, healing sometimes comes from quite simply being able to share the pain with another.

To listen to another person's pain is to show them love and to show them acceptance. To be listened to by another is to receive love and to receive acceptance. Which brings us to prayer. And as the prayer develops and grows, we are healed.

The Gospel reading for this Sunday reminds us that Jesus knew what it was for people to refuse to show him love and to reject him. And so, when we place our hurt and pain in God's hands, we bring them to a God who is not distant from human experience.

No matter what we have suffered, no matter how much we have been loved or not loved, accepted or rejected, in the God revealed in Jesus Christ we are never alone, we are never turned away, and we are always loved.

Fr.Maschio.

BULLETIN BITS - 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"As the Lord spoke to me, the spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me, 'Son of man, I am sending you...'" EZEKIEL 2:2-3

God has a plan for each of us. He calls us to do something for Him. But, He doesn't leave us on our own to figure it out. He gives us the resources we need to do His work. Are you listening for God's call? When you hear it, do you get on your feet and do the work He asks of you? Do not be afraid. God doesn't call the equipped, he equips the called. Answer His call.
