PASTOR'S PEN

Greetings in Christ Jesus!

The readings of this Sunday remind us that Christ is the source of all true unity between human beings. In the first reading Jeremiah laments Israel's lack of good kings. A good king is like a shepherd whose task it is to prevent the flock from being scattered or lost. Jeremiah looks forward to a time when there will be a just and wise king to shepherd his people.

The gospel echoes this image. For Christ is in fact this promised shepherd. St Paul reminds us in Ephesians that the shepherd of Israel is our shepherd too. Christ has removed the barriers between Israel and the Gentiles. The rest of Paul's letter will be concerned with identifying those human sins that threaten our unity in Christ.

Each meeting with a fellow human being is an opportunity to unite or to divide. Will our daily contacts with others be divisive or will they serve to unite? Will they increase mutual understanding and strengthen the bonds of friendship or will they add to suspicion, prejudice and antagonism?

Bringing people together under Christ is no simple matter. It is not only a question of bringing people to the true faith. Faith can only take root in the right kind of soil and the right kind of soil is the knowledge that people are respected and loved.

Even before we teach the truths of our faith there is a need to remove the obstacles that prevent human beings from experiencing the love of God namely poverty, ignorance, prejudice and violence.

The building of real community can never be achieved solely by the efforts of a secular society because a society without faith is a society that places no lasting value on human life and human relations.

Jesus reminds us that true religion is a question of sharing in the love that the Father offers us through the Son and in his Spirit. The unity that Christ offers us is not just peace on earth but friendship with God and each other for all eternity.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

If you have a child you would like to add to the Sunday school list (grades preschool-6 grade) please contact Karen Gubbels by email kolsonawski@hotmail.com or phone 218-988-2826

Sunday school is in desperate need of one more teacher. Even if you aren't able to commit to every week we can possibly work out some kind of co-teaching situation. We may not be able to provide Sunday school for all grades Pre-K through 6th grade unless we find one more teacher!

RCIA

Rock Bakken will be offering RCIA classes beginning Saturday September 11th and running each Saturday through Easter. These classes will be for anyone who either wishes to become a Catholic or just learn more about the Catholic faith.

ST. PATRICK'S PARISH PICNIC

The date of the church picnic has been set for Sunday, August 29th. There will be Mass at 4pm and the picnic will follow in the rectory yard. There will not be Saturday Mass or Sunday morning Mass on that weekend so that we can come together as a parish for the picnic.

LADIES GUILD LETTERS

There are letters for each guild member in the entry of the church. If you haven't received yours yet, look for it in the box next time you are at the church.

DAA SUMMER APPEAL

The Diocesan Summer Appeal weekend is July 25th. The Diocese will be sending out a mailing to each family prior to that time. There will also be envelopes in the entry of the church if needed.

BULLETIN BITS - 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." MARK 6:31
 Do you spend time, every day, alone and in silence listening to how God is calling you? If not, you are missing out on a wonderful opportunity to develop a more personal relationship with Him. Unless we talk and more importantly, listen to God every day, how else will we know how He is calling us? Consider making a retreat this year, spend some "alone" time with God.

ADORATION SIGN UP

There are sign up sheets in the entry of the church for adoration this Wednesday beginning at noon until 6:00 pm. Please consider signing up to spend one hour with our Lord.

DAILY MASS

Why not make a commitment to attend at least one daily Mass in addition to the Sunday Mass? Join us at 8:00 am, Monday through Friday. Time required is less than a half hour and if you have extra time, coffee is served in the conference room immediately after Mass.
