Purgatory is NOT a second chance for unrepentant sinners

Dear Parish Family,

One of my favorite parts of being Catholic is that I have a spiritual relationship with all of God's children. I love that no matter where believers in Christ may be-in heaven, finishing their perfection in purgatory, or still journeying here on earth-we're all connected to one another in spirit. It's profoundly consoling to know that when I'm struggling in this broken world, I can look to my family, parishioners, friends to pray for me, so that I'll obtain extra graces that will help me persevere in faith.

But this isn't a one-way relationship; I'm called to pray for others, too. In November we remember our beloved dead and pray for them. Praying for both the living and the dead is actually one of the lesser-known spiritual works of mercy.

Just so we're clear: Purgatory is NOT a second chance for unrepentant sinners...you can't die in serious sin and get a "do-over" in purgatory. To get to purgatory in the first place, you have to die in friendship with God. Purgatory actually isn't so much a place but a process-it's the process of being purified of all the self-love and sinfulness that wasn't burned out of us before we died. It's simply how we finish the process of becoming perfect that we began here on earth. We need this purification because without being perfect ourselves, we aren't fit to be in the presence of our all-holy God.

Purgatory is real and so are the souls suffering there. Here are some of the ways God has given us to assist the dead so they might more quickly see Our Lord face to face: Have Masses offered for them, give alms in their honor, and offer sacrifices for them. God has given you the power to open the gates of heaven for souls. This is a privilege God has given only to the living. They can't suffer, or offer Masses, or give alms on their behalf. Only we get to do this for our brothers and sisters in purgatory.

United in prayer,

Fr. Joshy Mathew, Kulangara

Congratulations to Veronica Patch for being born in the waters of baptism as a member of St. Patrick's Parish!

SECOND COLLECTION

There will be a second collection taken on the weekend of November 18th/19th for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development.

HOLIDAY HELPERS

In years past Holiday Helpers has helped both children and adults with their Christmas wish lists. Starting this year they are shifting their focus on helping the kids in Kittson County. The gift tags that are distributed and placed on the tree will only be youth requests, however; they do not want to leave out the older population in our community. Holiday Helpers is asking churches to donate some of the most commonly requested items: Socks, hats, gloves, robes, slippers, pajamas, shirts, and coats all in various sizes. All donations are appreciated and requested to be turned in by the end of November to the entry of St. Patrick's or the Social Service's office in the the Court House.

CONFESSIONS & ADORATION

Father is offering opportunities for confession before daily Mass from 7:15-7:45 AM Tuesday and Thursday and 30 minutes before all weekend Masses. You can also call the parish office and set up a time for confession if that does not work. There is adoration from 7:15-7:45 AM before weekday Masses on Tuesday and Thursday and from 3:00-5:15 PM on Wednesday.

CHILDREN'S OFFERINGS

We have started a non-perishable food items donation during Mass. Children are encouraged to bring up items and place them in the basket in front of the altar during the regular collection at Mass.
