How to Be Happy

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

When Jesus saw the crowds, Matthew tells us, he went up the mountain. He went up the mountain - like Moses going up the mountain to receive the law from God and present it to the people. Jesus also was going to present the law, the new law, his law, his law that would go beyond the old law of Moses and propose a way of life that he says is also the way to happiness, a life of beatitude, of blessedness. Then he goes on to propose things that seem to be the exact opposite: poverty of spirit, meekness, suffering, bearing the taunts of enemies. This is certainly not what we would normally think of as the way to happiness.

There seems to be a lot of unhappiness in the world we live in. Our news media report far more bad news than good news. I don't know about you, but I find it difficult to read the papers, watch television, or listen to the radio and be constantly reminded of all the bad things that are happening in our world: the unending war in Ukraine, people being killed and wounded every day, homes destroyed, families decimated, the impossibility of bringing Israelites and Palestinians together even to talk about peace. It can all be a bit discouraging.

There must have been plenty of bad news in Palestine in Jesus time, too. After all, the country was occupied by Roman conquerors. There was plenty of real poverty. A wicked king was on the throne. John the Baptist was in prison. Things did not look too good.

But what I hear Jesus saying is something like this: You know, it wouldn't be too hard to find some good news to shout about. After all, look around you. Look at the good things that are happening. There is happiness. There is hope. Look at the gentle people, the comforting people, the outgoing people, those who do not hold on to what they have but use it to help others. Think of all the help given to our brothers and sisters who are sick and helpless. Look at the peacemakers, the merciful ones, those who seek justice, those who struggle for wholeness. Because of what they do, happiness is everywhere.

I would call the beatitudes the Be-Attitudes. So, listen to Jesus. Pray about what he says. Let these be your attitudes and be happy.

Fr. Joshy Mathew

CATECHISM IN A YEAR

It's still not too late to start listening to the Catechism in a year. There are multiple platforms available to listen on: Hallow App (you can also email communications@crookston.org and be added to the group where Bishop Cozzens and others post reflections from the daily podcast on Hallow), Spotify, Apple Podcasts, YouTube, and many others. Most of the episodes have been 15-20 minutes each including the readings of the Catechism. Don't have a Catechism? Don't worry you can access it online at usccb.org or the Laudate app for free. If you use YouTube they include a transcript while Father Mike is talking so you can read it along with him on the video.
